WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

The Law Office of Dr Mujahid Al-Sawwaf

sawwaf.weebly.com | Riyadh, Saudi Arabia | Prepared for the Al-Sawwaf Law Office team

A Saudi law office with a Riyadh branch appears to lose international clients to a free builder address, a template footer and a thin contact path.

What I found on your website

| What I saw | What it costs you | The fix |
|---|---|---|
| The site appears to run on a free Weebly address, with a footer that says Powered by Create your own unique website. | A builder advert in the footer looks unprofessional for a top litigation and finance firm. | Your own domain and a branded footer. |
| No contact form or WhatsApp appears, only postal boxes, telephone numbers and an E-mail us link. | International clients expect to send a short enquiry in one step. | A short enquiry form and WhatsApp. |
| A Largest litigation practice in Saudi Arabia claim appears with no source, rankings or case examples. | An unproven claim gives way to firms that show rankings and results. | Cite rankings and add case examples. |
| The homepage appears to be a short block of text with no lawyer photos or names on the first page. | Clients hire people they can see. | Lawyer profiles on the homepage. |

What your new website will do for The Law Office of Dr Mujahid Al-Sawwaf

- Own domain and branded footer.
- Enquiry form and WhatsApp.
- Proof and lawyer profiles.
