WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

City Dermatology Clinic

citydermatologyclinic.com | Harley Street, London | Prepared for the City Dermatology team

A large review count and a multi doctor team are strengths, but leaked form text, repeated reviews and blank images appear to weaken the page.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
Both Treatments menu items link to #, and ENQUIRE NOW and View Map use popup anchors instead of real pages.	Visitors cannot browse treatments from the main menu.	Working menus and real destinations.
The callback form shows This field is for validation purposes and should be left unchanged, plus a stray symbol and a lone First label.	Leftover form text looks unfinished at the point of enquiry.	A clean, tested form.
The review block appears twice, with the same reviews shown under first names and then full names, and about 25 images appear to be blank placeholders.	Repeated reviews and blank images look like an error.	One review wall and real images.
Saturday hours read 9am to 6pm in the body and 9am to 7pm in the footer, and doctor names vary between reviews and the doctor list.	Mixed details cause confusion and missed visits.	One verified set of hours and names.

What your new website will do for City Dermatology Clinic

- Working menus and a clean enquiry form with WhatsApp.
- One review wall and real images.
- Consistent hours and doctor names across the site.
