WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

DSP Law

dsplaw.com.au | Sydney, Australia | Prepared for the DSP Law team

A Sydney conveyancing practice appears to lose enquiries because no quote form exists and the site shows unfinished content.

What I found on your website

| What I saw | What it costs you | The fix |
|---|---|---|
| Contact appears to rely on phone, text and email only, with no enquiry or quote form. | Owners and buyers who want a quote in writing have no easy way to ask. | A short quote request form. |
| The page appears to say We will include more information in these areas in due course, and Conveyancing and Other areas of Law menu items appear to have no destination. | Unfinished sections make the firm look inactive. | Complete service pages. |
| Typos such as letters of administation and whatsapp appear, and the footer appears to show 2023. | Typos and old dates weaken trust in a legal service. | Proofread copy and a current date. |
| The only address appears to be a PO Box, and no fees, reviews or lawyer names appear despite the promise of low cost fees. | Clients want to see who they are hiring and what it costs. | Named lawyers, fee guidance and reviews. |

What your new website will do for DSP Law

- Quote form.
- Complete pages.
- Lawyer profiles, fees and reviews.

How it works

1. 15 minute call
   I show you a preview of your new design. No cost.
2. Approve the look
   You pick changes. I build in days, not months.
3. Launch and track
   Booking, WhatsApp and forms tested on mobile before go live.
