WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

Knightsbridge Prime Property

knightsbridgeprimeproperty.com | Knightsbridge, London | Prepared for the Knightsbridge Prime team

Prime central London listings and a WhatsApp number are strengths, but repeated listings, an enquiry form that appears to show no fields and unsupported claims cost you vendors and buyers.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
Lancelot Place appears three times across the listings, The Knightsbridge Apartments appears twice, and Battersea and Nine Elms and Nine Elms are separate filters.	Repeated listings make a prime agency look careless to wealthy buyers.	One clean listing per property and tidy filters.
The enquiry form shows Close Submit and checkbox labels with no visible name, email or message fields, and the newsletter block shows no input fields.	A buyer or vendor ready to enquire may not be able to.	A tested enquiry form with WhatsApp.
The page claims London's fastest-growing Prime Central London Agency and that you respond within 2 hours with no supporting data.	Unsupported claims reduce credibility with high value clients.	Sourced figures or specific, honest promises.
The William Adinata testimonial appears twice, blocks show stray underscores, a guide price reads Guide Price£6,250,000, and a testimonial uses both Becks and His.	Small slips on a multi million pound listing page look careless.	Proofread copy and tidy testimonial blocks.
