WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

Unified Lawyers

unifiedlawyers.com.au | Sydney, Australia | Prepared for Mark Youssef, Alex Bourne and Deborah Hyde

A Sydney family and property law firm with hundreds of reviews is a strength, but dead consultation buttons and zero counters appear to cost you free consultations.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
The menu items Services, Locations and Book a Free Consultation appear to link to #, and several Free Consultation buttons appear to link to # as well.	A client ready to book a consultation clicks and nothing happens.	Every consultation button leading to one working booking form.
The counters appear to show '0 +' for 5 Star Testimonials and Combined Years of Experience while the text claims 600+ and 8000+.	Zeros on your strongest proof points make the claims look false.	Correct live counters.
The reviewer name 'R U' appears on several testimonials, an article dated 2024 appears featured as a 2026 guide, and a review dated October 2026 appears later than the newest blog post.	Odd names and mixed dates make reviews look unreal.	Real reviewer names and correct dates.
Divorce Lawyers Sydney and Family Lawyers Sydney appear to point to the homepage, and Bondi appears as an office in the body but Bondi Junction in the footer.	Clients searching for those services land on the wrong page.	Dedicated service pages and consistent office names.

What your new website will do for Unified Lawyers

- Real reviews, correct dates and dedicated service pages.
