WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

Dr. Judy Sturm & Associates

yorkvillesmiles.com | Yorkville, Toronto | Prepared for Dr Sturm and the team

A 1995 Yorkville practice with real patient stories is a strength, but dead buttons and repeated content appear to cost you new patient bookings.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
The top Schedule Appointment button and the hours in the header appear to link to #, and every Book My Appointment button appears to go to the contact page, so no booking form is visible.	A new patient who taps Schedule Appointment lands nowhere and may call the next dentist.	One online booking form with a confirmation.
All three testimonials (Noah, Lily, Tim) appear to link to the same video, and the awards cited date from 2012 to 2020.	Repeated proof and old awards make the practice look inactive.	Fresh, real reviews and current awards.
The practice name appears in four versions (Dr. Judy Sturm & Associates, Dr Judy & Associates, Dr. Sturm and Associates, Judy Sturm & Associates) while the domain says yorkvillesmiles.	Mixed names weaken search visibility and trust.	One brand name used everywhere.
Hero slides appear to use a dummy.png placeholder, the page says 'open early and close late' beside Friday 8am to 3pm, and the cookie notice reads 'happy with it.Ok'.	Small slips make a premium Yorkville practice look unfinished.	Clean copy, real images and exact hours.
