WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

K Estates

kestates.ae | Dubai | Prepared for the team

A boutique advisory positioning and WhatsApp on the page are strengths, but empty sections and conflicting numbers appear to cost you buyers.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
The WhatsApp link appears to use 971589633865 while the footer shows +971 55 996 9994, and the Request a Callback section appears to show no fields.	A buyer who cannot tell which number is real or leave details may call a competitor.	One verified number and a working callback form.
Offplan properties, Featured properties, Properties for rent, International properties and Resources each appear to show only a heading and a See more link.	Empty sections make an advisory firm look unfinished.	Filled sections or removal of empty ones.
Menu parents such as Buy, Rent and More appear to link to #, every item under Search properties by features appears to go to /buy/, and the page appears to end with 'Patience is the master key to all problems, This may take few moments ...'.	Filters that do not filter and leftover loading text frustrate serious buyers.	Working filters and clean page ending.
The page appears to show no testimonials, transaction figures or named agents, the Off Plan label appears three ways, and the newsletter appears to have no email field.	Luxury buyers want proof and people, and find none.	Named advisors, results and a working newsletter form.
