WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

Al-Ahli Hospital Dermatology

ahlihospital.com | Doha, Qatar | Prepared for the Al-Ahli Hospital team

A Doha hospital dermatology page appears to lose appointments because its main booking link goes nowhere and no hours appear.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
The main booking link, Call or WhatsApp, appears to link to #, and the Book Your Appointment Today heading appears to use # as well.	Patients ready to book have no working path.	A working call and WhatsApp link.
No opening hours appear anywhere on the page, and the phone number appears in three formats.	Patients cannot tell when to call or whether the number is correct.	Visible hours and one clean number.
Typos such as BACK TO DEPARMENTS, ALL RIGHT RESERVED and Weclome appear, and a doctor name appears spelled two ways.	Typos in a hospital page weaken trust.	Proofread copy and consistent names.
No reviews, before and after examples or doctor experience details appear, and three booking headings appear to compete.	Patients choose a dermatologist they can see and trust.	Doctor profiles, reviews and one booking block.

What your new website will do for Al-Ahli Hospital Dermatology

- Working booking link.
- Hours and one number.
- Doctor profiles and reviews.
