WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

Abdullah AlAthbah and Associates

alathbah.law | Doha, Qatar | Prepared for the AlAthbah team

A Doha advocacy and arbitration firm appears to lose enquiries to a WhatsApp link that looks wrong, filler text and no contact form.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
The WhatsApp button appears to link to wa.me/30796666, which does not match the listed number 6666 3079 with the 974 code.	A client who taps WhatsApp may reach no one, and you never see the lost enquiry.	The correct full number in the WhatsApp link.
Placeholder Lorem ipsum text appears in the page content.	Filler text on a law firm site signals an unfinished build to corporate clients.	Real practice copy in every panel.
No contact form appears on the page, only a phone, an email and social links.	Many clients prefer to leave details at night and do not call.	A short enquiry form with matter type and phone.
The same welcome heading appears four times and the footer appears to read Copyright 2025.	Repeats and an old year make the site feel unmaintained.	One clear headline and a current footer.

What your new website will do for Abdullah AlAthbah and Associates

- Correct WhatsApp and enquiry form.
