WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

APAS Business Solutions

apasbusinesssolutions.com | London, UK | Prepared for the APAS team

An accountancy practice that promises no penalty fines appears to lose new clients to a cluttered menu, leftover placeholder text and a typo in the pricing area.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
The main menu appears to list Advertising Page about eleven times, next to internal items such as Time Sheet, PAYE details and Employees Registration Form.	A new client cannot find your services in a menu this long, and staff pages in a public menu look careless for a firm that handles money.	A short menu with five or six clear services.
Placeholder Latin text, Quisque rhoncus ut mauris, appears in the footer area.	Leftover template text makes the site look unfinished, and clients doubt a firm that leaves it on show.	Clean footer with your real details.
The business plan prices appear to carry the typo Busniess Plan and uneven price formatting.	A typo in the area where a client decides to buy lowers trust and sales.	Clear price cards with a simple next step.

What your new website will do for APAS Business Solutions

- Short menu, clear services.
- No placeholder text.
- Clean price cards and an enquiry form.
