WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

Bluebells Lawyers

bluebellslawyers.com.au | Bella Vista, Sydney, Australia | Prepared for the team

A Sydney commercial, property and wills practice offering big firm expertise is a strength, but a 2015 footer and developer text in the form appear to cost you enquiries.

What I found on your website

| What I saw | What it costs you | The fix |
|---|---|---|
| Three Read More links appear to point to javascript:; and an empty link appears beside the logo. | A client who clicks to learn about commercial, property or wills law lands nowhere. | Working service pages for every practice area. |
| Two form fields appear to show the developer note 'This field is for validation purposes and should be left unchanged', and the email appears only as an obfuscated placeholder. | Visible test text makes a form look unsafe, and no readable email reduces trust. | A clean form and a readable contact email. |
| The footer appears to read Copyright 2015, and typos appear such as 'Where you property is being compulsorily acquired' and 'Directors & Officers Liabilities'. | An old date and typos signal a firm that is not paying attention. | A current footer and proofread copy. |
| Only three testimonials appear with no full names or matter types, and the claim 'big firm expertise in a small firm environment' appears with no named partners. | Thin proof gives a business owner little reason to choose you over a bigger firm. | Named partners, credentials and fuller testimonials. |

What your new website will do for Bluebells Lawyers

- Working service pages.
- A clean form and readable email.
- Current footer, named partners and stronger proof.
