WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

Harley Street Dermatology Clinic

harleystdermatology.com | Harley Street, London | Prepared for the clinic team

A specialist focus and a CQC report link are strengths, but typos, a dead menu item and no contact form appear to cost you patients.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
The Dermatology menu item links to #, and the Our services link points to an anchor that does not appear.	Visitors cannot reach your main service pages from the menu.	Working menus and service pages.
The page shows 'Basel Cell Carcinoma' and 'skin deseases', and the blog section lists no posts.	Spelling errors on medical terms make patients doubt expertise.	Proofread medical copy and a real blog section.
The header lists two phone numbers, 0207 299 0392 and 0207 467 8300, while the footer lists only the first.	Patients are unsure which number to call.	One checked number everywhere.
No contact form appears, booking relies on a third party link, and no reviews or registration details are shown.	Patients who want to enquire online have no simple option and proof is thin.	A direct enquiry form, WhatsApp and visible reviews.
