WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

HAS Law Firm

has.law | Dubai | Prepared for Hamdan Al Shamsi

Your homepage has named reviews and Legal500 quotes, but menus that go nowhere, unfinished text and no clear next step weaken a strong reputation.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
Team, Expertise, Sectors, Practice Areas and the top Contact Us link all point to #.	A client who wants to see your team or reach you from the top bar lands nowhere.	Working menus and one clear Contact page.
No contact form on the page, no button in the hero, and WhatsApp is only a small icon by the phone number.	Corporate clients decide in seconds, and with no clear next step many leave.	Hero button, short enquiry form and a labelled WhatsApp button.
The name appears as HAS Law Firm, Hamdan Al Shamsi Lawyers and Al-Shamsi-Legal. A review still shows the placeholder [specific parties].	Awards lose force when the page looks unfinished or the brand is unclear.	One brand name and proofread, current copy.
The same practice list appears three times, Read more appears 25 times, a review is repeated, and there are no case results or founder photo.	A long repeated page hides your real strengths.	A short practice grid, case results and a founder profile.

What your new website will do for HAS Law Firm

- A clear enquiry path on every page: form, WhatsApp and call.
- Case results, named reviews and a founder profile that build trust.
