WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

Highland Property

highlandproperty.com.au | Sydney, Australia | Prepared for the team

A Sydney agency with property and financial services under one brand is a strength, but broken images and malformed phone links appear to cost you appraisal requests.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
Most images appear to load the same placeholder file instead of real photos, and image text appears as file names such as 'image (33)_81_25'.	A seller judging an agency on first look sees blank pictures and loses confidence.	Real optimised photos with proper descriptions.
The Highland Marine phone link appears to read 'tel:0295440888or0404014595' and the footer phone link appears to contain spaces.	A mobile visitor who taps to call may get a failed call.	Separate, correctly formatted click to call links.
The Financial Services button appears to point to one website while the section uses another, and the Property Alerts menu item appears to link to #open-login-form.	Visitors are sent to the wrong site or a dead item.	Correct destinations for every button.
The Enquire now form appears to have no message field, 'Please choose' appears as visible text on the appraisal form, and the Vue project text appears cut off.	Thin forms and cut text lose appraisal requests.	A complete appraisal form and finished copy.

What your new website will do for Highland Property

- Real photos with proper descriptions.
- Working click to call links.
- Correct buttons and a complete appraisal form.
