WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

Jassy Lawyers

jassylawyers.com.au | Bondi Junction, Sydney, Australia | Prepared for the team

A Bondi Junction firm with almost three decades of experience is a strength, but a dead Free Consultation button and a 2023 footer appear to cost you enquiries.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
The Free Consultation button appears three times and links to #, and Terms and Conditions, Privacy Policy, Get a Call Back and the search icon appear to link to # as well.	A client ready to enquire hits a dead button.	Working consultation and policy pages.
The footer appears to read 2023, the header appears to read JassyLawyer while the logo says Jassy Lawyers, and a staging address appears in the page code.	An old date and mixed names make a firm look inactive.	A current footer and one consistent name.
The time dropdown appears to show options run together (8 AM9 AM10 AM), the phone number appears with no area code, and the phone link appears to contain a space.	Broken form details and a phone link that may not dial lose enquiries.	A clean form and a correct click to call link.
No lawyers, testimonials or case results appear, only statements such as 'proven experts' and 'decades of experience'.	Clients choosing a lawyer need proof of who they are hiring.	Named lawyers, credentials and client feedback.

What your new website will do for Jassy Lawyers

- Working buttons and policy pages.
- A current footer and one name.
- A clean form, named lawyers and visible proof.
