WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

JB Solicitors

jbsolicitors.com.au | Sydney, Australia | Prepared for John Bui

A multi office Sydney family and property firm with 100 plus Google reviews is a strength, but placeholder text, mismatched links and no inline form appear to cost you enquiries.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
A heading appears to read 'Add Your Heading Text Here', Parramatta appears spelled 'Paramatta', and the footer appears to read 'Quick LInks'.	Leftover template text and typos make a law firm look careless to a client choosing a lawyer.	Proofread copy and finished headings.
The footer link 'Commercial and Litigation' appears to go to an unfair dismissal page, and wills and divorce links appear to use two different addresses.	Clients land on the wrong service page and leave.	Matching labels and one address per service.
The FAQ section appears to show unfinished answers such as 'I cannot provide a factual answer on whether you can contest a will'.	Unfinished answers lower trust and give visitors no help.	Real answers written by your lawyers.
The page appears to say both six and seven offices, 102 and 104 reviews, and no inline contact form appears, only links to a contact page.	Mixed numbers weaken credibility, and extra clicks lose enquiries.	Consistent figures and a short enquiry form on every page.

What your new website will do for JB Solicitors

- Proofread, finished copy.
- Matching links and service pages.
- Real FAQs, consistent figures and an inline enquiry form.
