WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

London Luxury Property

londonluxproperty.com | Montpelier Street, London | Prepared for the London Luxury Property team

A Knightsbridge office and compliance certificates are strengths, but a valuation form that appears to be missing and a dead registration link cost you vendors.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
The valuation section says Simply fill out the form but no form appears, and the Get in touch form shows flattened labels with no visible fields or submit button.	Vendors who want a valuation cannot request one.	A working valuation and enquiry form.
The HMRC AML registration number links to #, and the header email link has an empty mailto target.	A dead compliance link and a broken email link weaken trust.	Working compliance and email links.
A friendly and professional team at your service appears twice, Read more is the link text on all four listings, and the Nearest branch field lists only one option.	Repeated lines and vague links make the page feel generic.	Distinct copy and descriptive links.
The page claims over 65 years of combined local knowledge and The Best Price with no named agents, sales figures, reviews or awards.	Vendors choose on proof and see none.	Named agents, reviews and sales figures.

What your new website will do for London Luxury Property
