WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

Mosman Fine Dental

mosmanfinedental.com.au | Mosman, Sydney, Australia | Prepared for Dr Aden Tran and Dr AJ Ambikairajah

A Mosman practice offering cosmetic and implant work is a strength, but typos in the menu and no patient reviews appear to cost you high value patients.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
The cosmetic menu appears to read 'Smile Rejunvenation', a case study appears to say 'antiobiotic therapy', and an image caption appears as 'whit his whitened teeth'.	Typos in a clinical brand make a patient doubt the care they will receive.	Proofread copy across every page.
Book Now and Book an Appointment appear to link to a contact page, and the form asks 'What do you want to do?', so booking depends on a manual reply.	High value patients who expect to book online may not wait for a reply.	A real online booking flow with clear time choices.
No patient reviews or ratings appear, and only four case studies appear with short text ending in dots, naming patients by first name only.	Cosmetic patients choose by proof, and thin proof loses them to a competitor.	Real reviews with ratings and full before and after cases.
Several images appear to carry empty descriptions, and the hero copy appears generic ('friendly family practice') with no call now button near the top.	A generic first impression does not signal a premium cosmetic practice.	A premium hero message and a clear call button.

What your new website will do for Mosman Fine Dental

- Proofread copy.
- A real online booking flow.
- Reviews, full cases and a stronger first impression.
