WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

Smith Immigration Law

smithimmigrationgroup.com | Toronto, Canada | Prepared for Adrienne Smith

A Toronto immigration firm with media features appears to lose enquiries to a Chat with us button that is not a chat and no contact form.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
The Chat with us button appears to link to a contact page, and no contact form appears on the page.	Visitors expect chat and find none, so they leave.	A real chat or a short enquiry form.
Footer links appear to use a duplicate looking page address ending in -1, and the cart icon appears to link to a cart.	Leftover pages and a shop cart look odd for a law firm.	Clean links and no cart.
A testimonial appears to say they combines, the section appears to say Lawyers but shows one lawyer, and images appear to be named as screenshots.	Typos and leftover image names reduce trust.	Proofread copy and clean images.
Testimonials and media logos appear with no dates, case types or article links, and no copyright date appears.	Undated proof is hard to trust.	Dated reviews and linked press features.

What your new website will do for Smith Immigration Law

- Chat or form.
- Clean links.
- Proofread copy and dated proof.
