WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

80 Kensington Dental Clinic

kensingtondentalclinic.co.uk | Kensington, London | Prepared for the team

CQC and GDC accreditation logos and a Google review link are strengths, but a booking button with no direct flow and a stale footer appear to cost you patients.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
Book Now and Book An Appointment appear to link to the contact page, so there is no direct booking flow.	Patients ready to book have to hunt for a form.	A direct online booking form.
The More menu item appears to have no link, Terms and Conditions appears to point to a page ending 'copy-of-privacy-policy', and the page appears to show 'Use tab to navigate through the menu items.'	Dead links and leaked developer text look unfinished.	Working menu and correct legal pages.
Hours appear as '9.00AM-18.00PM' with Monday to Friday only, and the footer appears to read 2023.	Odd hours formatting and an old footer weaken trust.	Clean hours including weekends and a current footer.
One testimonial appears with no rating or review count, it appears to say 'extremely amicable', and the CQC link and logos appear to use http rather than https.	Thin proof and insecure links weaken credibility.	Review count with ratings and secure links.
