WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

Dr Cosima Medispa

drcosima.com.au | Sydney, Australia | Prepared for Dr Cosima and team

A Bondi Junction laser and skin clinic appears to lose patients to typos, awkward treatment names and a limited new patient path.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
The header appears to read Dr Cosima Medipa, and a treatment name appears as Cellulite Reductiom.	Spelling errors in the clinic name and treatments hurt trust at a premium price.	Proofread names and treatment titles.
Treatment names appear to carry Bondi Junction on the end, such as Byonik: Bondi Junction Laser and Rejuran Treatment Bondi Junction.	Stuffed names read as unnatural and make the menu hard to scan.	Clean treatment names with location handled in the page structure.
The page appears to say new consultation spaces open only once per month.	Patients who want to start now may book another clinic instead.	A waitlist that captures their details, plus instant booking.
No WhatsApp appears and only one phone number appears.	Younger patients choose clinics they can message in seconds.	WhatsApp or chat on every treatment page.

What your new website will do for Dr Cosima Medispa

- Clean names and spelling.
- Waitlist and instant booking.
- WhatsApp on treatment pages.
