WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

Galadari Advocates and Legal Consultants

galadarilaw.com | Dubai, UAE | Prepared for the Galadari team

A long established UAE firm appears to lose a little polish to visible page errors that clients see before they see the work.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
An error message that reads ivory-search 404, search form does not exist, appears in the page near the menu.	Visible code errors on a premium firm site make clients doubt the details.	Fix or remove the broken search block.
Stray markup characters appear to show in the page text near the header and the end of the page.	Broken markup looks careless on a flagship firm site.	Clean template markup.
The newsletter consent appears to read Galadari Advocates & legal Consultants One Person LLC with a lowercase legal.	Small naming slips weaken a legal brand that sells on precision.	One correct company name everywhere.
The page appears to offer a Contact Us path in the menu but no clear single enquiry button or booking option on the first screen.	Busy executives leave when the next step is not obvious.	One clear consultation button on the first screen.

What your new website will do for Galadari Advocates and Legal Consultants

- Remove visible errors.
- Clean markup and naming.
- One clear consultation button.
