WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

Boutique Property Agents

boutiquepropertyagents.com | Sydney, Australia | Prepared for the agency principal

A Sydney city agency with strong testimonials appears to lose appraisals to small errors and a missing appraisal form.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
The appraisal path appears to be only a link to /market-appraisal, with no form on the homepage, and Manage My Property appears to link to /rental-appraisal.	Owners who are ready to ask for a price must find another page first.	An appraisal form on the homepage with the right link.
The phone link appears to be written with spaces, and the footer phone link appears to be titled Buy.	Mobile visitors may fail to dial, and the leftover label looks careless.	Clean tel links and correct labels.
A rental listing appears at $70 per week, Trustworth appears in a testimonial, and some listings appear twice.	Visible errors cause buyers and landlords to doubt your attention to detail.	Proofread copy and clean listing feeds.
Most testimonials appear to be first name only without suburb or date, and no principal is named.	Owners want to see who will sell their home and real results.	Named agents, suburbs, dates and review badges.
