WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

Eva Karpati Skin Clinic

evakarpatiskinclinic.com.au | Double Bay, Sydney, Australia | Prepared for Eva Karpati

A physician led skin and longevity clinic in Double Bay is a strength, but dead booking buttons and almost no contact details appear to cost you high value patients.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
The Book a consultation and Book a treatment buttons appear to link to # or #onlinebookings, and no online booking appears.	A patient who is ready to book hits a dead button and leaves.	A working online booking flow.
The visible page appears to show only an address, with no phone number, email, WhatsApp or opening hours, and the Contact link appears to show nothing.	A patient who prefers to call or message has no route.	A full contact block with phone, WhatsApp, email and hours.
The address appears as 'Suite 2:04', the menu appears to say Programs while the text says programmes, and each treatment card appears to end with stray underscores ('View_').	Small errors weaken a premium clinical brand.	Proofread copy and clean cards.
The only proof appears to be a founder quote, with no testimonials, reviews, credentials or before and after examples for the physician led programmes.	High value patients need proof and credentials before booking.	Named credentials, reviews and case examples.
