WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

Sharq Law Firm

sharqlawfirm.com | West Bay, Doha | Prepared for Mr Rashid Al Saad and the team

IFLR1000 recognition and a large legal team are strengths, but an outdated page and typos appear to cost you corporate clients.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
The footer appears to read Copyright 2021, the newest award listed is 2022, and the slider images appear to use dummy.png placeholders.	Corporate clients judging an active firm see stale content.	Current awards and real images.
Copy appears to include 'trasactions', 'unparallel services', 'on an international bases' and '(1000IFLR)', and the Our Location heading appears to have no map.	Typos in legal copy and a missing map weaken credibility and cost visits.	Proofread copy and an embedded map.
The page says a team of 43 lawyers while the stats show 50, uses Sharq Law Office and Sharq Law Firm, and shows the hotline only in the Arabic block.	Conflicting numbers and names weaken every other claim.	One verified set of facts and contacts.
The LinkedIn link appears to point to an authwall page, the Twitter link to a search query, and Clients 5000 and 1165 have no explanation or case examples.	Broken social links and unexplained figures give no real proof.	Working profiles, labeled stats and case studies.
