WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

Adam Bernard Solicitors

adambernards.co.uk | London, UK | Prepared for the team

A London firm with immigration, wills and property services and over 15 years of experience is a strength, but template text and claims that clash appear to cost you enquiries.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
The cookie banner appears to show unrendered text such as 'Manage {vendor_count} vendors' and '{title}', and 'Please enable JavaScript' and 'utm matchtype term' appear in the form.	Visible code text makes a law firm look unfinished and unsafe.	Clean banner and form text.
The Central London address, the new client label and the info email link appear to point to #, and the opening hours appear to link to #.	A client cannot reach the office or email from those links.	Working contact links.
Typos appear such as 'LANDLORDS and TENENTS' and 'Adam bennard solicitors', the firm appears to claim 24/7 availability while office hours are 9am to 5:30pm, and the headings appear to say East Ham while the addresses say Upton Park.	Typos and mixed claims weaken trust in a law firm.	Proofread copy and consistent claims.
Many competing buttons appear (Get Free Consultation, Request Callback, Book Free, Request a Call), and the 4.8 rating and 15000 clients claims appear with no source.	Too many choices and unsourced claims lower conversions.	One clear call to action and sourced proof.
