WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

Designer Smiles Dentistry

designersmiles.com.au | Sydney, Australia | Prepared for Dr Sarkis Nalbandian and team

A Cremorne cosmetic practice with 124 Google reviews appears to lose enquiries to dead menu links and an empty results section.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
The Dental Services menu and its sub items, Specialist, Cosmetic, General and Implants, appear to link to #.	Patients exploring treatments cannot reach them.	Working pages behind every menu item.
The Before and After section appears to show six blank image placeholders, and the Our Partners and accreditation areas appear empty.	Cosmetic patients buy on visible results and proof.	Real captioned cases and labelled accreditations.
The review widget and floating review button appear to link to an empty Google link, and no review text appears.	You miss a chance to show 124 reviews as proof.	A working review link and real quotes.
The disclaimer appears to contain garbled wording about the theatre, and the booking dropdown options appear to run together on one line.	Garbled text and a broken form look careless on a premium site.	Proofread copy and a clean form.

What your new website will do for Designer Smiles Dentistry

- Working menus.
- Real results gallery.
- Review proof and a clean form.
