WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

Immigration Law Specialists

immigrationlawspecialists.weebly.com | London, UK | Prepared for the Immigration Law Specialists team

A London immigration firm appears to lose clients to a free builder address, a keyword heavy menu and no enquiry form.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
The site appears to run on a free Weebly address.	Clients choosing an immigration adviser judge credibility first, and a free builder address looks temporary.	Your own domain and a firm email.
The menu appears to repeat the same keywords, such as Immigration Law Solicitors, Immigration Solicitors and Immigration Applications.	Repeated keywords read like spam and do not tell a client what happens next.	A clear menu with real service pages.
The page appears to say contact us on line, but I did not see an enquiry form.	A client in a hurry will not copy an email address, so they contact another firm.	A short enquiry form on the page.
The firm name appears with a stray space, I mmigration, and no WhatsApp appears.	Typos in the firm's own name weaken trust, and many clients prefer to message first.	A corrected name and a one tap WhatsApp button.

What your new website will do for Immigration Law Specialists

- Own domain.
- Clear service pages.
- Enquiry form and WhatsApp.
