WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

Creative Arts Dental and Aesthetics

creativeartsaesthetic.com | Jumeirah, Dubai | Prepared for Dr Kazzaz and the team

A 4.8 Google rating and specialist orthodontists are strengths, but four overlapping forms and off topic photos on the braces page appear to cost you cases.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
The orthodontics page appears to show four booking forms (Request a consultation, Book Your Consultation, Get your free treatment plan and a popup), and the popup lists Emergency Dental and Aesthetic / Skin.	Too many forms confuse patients and dilute the enquiry.	One clear booking form.
The forms appear to include a stray Website field and a loose Company label.	Odd fields add friction and look unfinished.	Short form: name, phone, treatment.
The braces page appears to be headed 'Smiles made at Creative Arts' but shows porcelain veneer photos, with no braces or aligner before and after cases.	Patients looking for braces see no proof of braces results.	Real orthodontic cases with captions.
The page cites 242 reviews but appears to show no excerpts, the reviewer is listed as a veneers dentist, and the menu text appears to run together such as 'Dental crownsZirconia'.	Missing proof and mismatched credentials weaken trust.	Review excerpts, the specialist's name and a clean menu.

What your new website will do for Creative Arts Dental and Aesthetics

- One clear booking form.
- Real braces and aligner cases.
- Review excerpts and the specialist's profile.
