WEBSITE GROWTH AUDIT

Dr Hassan Medical Center

drhassanmedical.com | Old Airport Area, Doha | Prepared for the Dr Hassan team

A wide dermatology and aesthetic range is a strength, but a New York address in the footer and a booking form that appears to have no fields cost you patients.

What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
The footer says We are Here: 27 Division St, New York, NY 10002, USA, while the body lists an address in the Old Airport Area, Doha.	A wrong address confuses patients and hurts local search.	One correct Doha address everywhere.
The Get in Touch section appears to show labels and a Submit button with no input fields, and Book Online sends people to a different website.	Patients who try to book may leave or never reach you.	A working booking form on your own domain.
The page says a filler result lasts up to two days while Botox and Profhilo last up to six months, and the clinic appears as Al Abdulla, Al-Abdulla and Al Abdullah.	Odd claims and changing names weaken trust in aesthetic care.	Checked treatment claims and one consistent name.
About Us links to #, Terms and Privacy both go to a contacts page, and no doctors, prices, results or reviews appear.	Missing proof is the main reason patients choose another clinic.	Named doctors, results and reviews.
