What I found on your website

What I saw	What it costs you	The fix
The counters show 100,000+ patients and 23,000+ veneers, then later 70+ patients, 3+ five-star reviews and 302+ years of experience.	A patient who sees 302 years of experience or 3 reviews doubts every number on the page.	One verified set of numbers, shown correctly.
The page repeatedly describes in-house ceramic labs, but the footer says Our restorations are crafted by our partner lab.	A claim that contradicts itself raises doubts about everything else you say about quality.	One clear, accurate statement about where veneers are made.
Payment prices conflict: $57 a week for porcelain in the FAQ, from $30 a week for Invisalign elsewhere, and composite shows no price in one place but from $700 per tooth in another.	Price confusion is the main reason patients delay booking and compare other clinics.	One price page with clear starting prices for every treatment.
The Explore Treatment Results section shows filter labels but no visible before and after images, and there are no written patient testimonials. Services links to #, and there is no contact form or chat.	Veneer patients decide on visible results. Without them or a quick way to ask a question, many leave.	A working results gallery, written reviews and a short contact form.
